Education

SEPTEMBER 2018 - APRIL 2022

M.Sc. in Communication Design, Politecnico di Milano
Master's Degree (110 cum laude/110)

I acquired a research-based methodology and consolidated my competencies in communication design. Particularly in game design, cross-media communication, UX/UI design, and data visualisation design, from data collection to implementation.

- FEBRUARY - MARCH 2020 DensityDesign Open Day
Presented and exhibited individual infopoetry and group projects.
- FEBRUARY 2020 Workshop by Edwin Jacobs and DensityDesign Lab
Created a generative and data-driven poster with the use of OPENRNDR.
- FEBRUARY 2019 Workshop by Gabriele Ferri and Ilaria Mariani
Designed a playable design fiction with the use of Twine.

SEPTEMBER 2015 - JULY 2018

Bachelor in Communication Design, Politecnico di Milano
Bachelor's Degree (108/110)

I honed my skills in communication design, gaining expertise in visual representation and graphic techniques. I created various editorial and digital products, corporate identities, and websites.

- FEBRUARY - APRIL 2018 Spring off the Wall by PoliMi x Vans
Created the concept for the event, designed the communication campaign.
- FEBRUARY - JUNE 2017 Erasmus + at Universidad Complutense de Madrid
Deepened my editorial design and project management competencies.

SEPTEMBER 2010 - JUNE 2015

Liceo Classico - IIS. Raffaello
High School Diploma (93/100)

I developed my interest in humanities through the study of subjects such as Latin and Ancient Greek translation and literature, Italian and English literature.

Research experience

APRIL 2021 - APRIL 2022

Non sono solo immagini. Visualizzare il linguaggio dell'immagine-based sexual abuse online (They are not just images. Visualizing the language of image-based sexual abuse online), supervisor: G. Colombo

My master's degree research project focused on image-based sexual abuse (IBSA) practices and platforms involvement through the study of online vernacular language. I analysed social roots and media narration of IBSA, platform vernacular and affordances. I conducted extensive research on platforms using digital methods to examine vernacular in IBSA perpetration. I designed a website using data visualisation to present findings.

MARCH - JULY 2018

Ascolta i tuoi vestiti. Share: una campagna di comunicazione per dare valore all'abito usato (Listen to your clothes. Share: a communication campaign to give value to second-hand clothes), supervisors: V. L. Bucchetti, U. Tolino, P. Visconti

My bachelor's degree research project was a three-phase communication campaign for a social business selling second-hand clothing. I conducted research on used clothing and analysed people's opinions through online surveys and interviews with my team (E. Cusumano, G. Fumagalli, B. Vanoli).

Work experience

JANUARY - APRIL 2021

Accurat, Milano - Data Visualization Designer (Intern)

I improved my abilities in data visualisation design and team collaboration by working on transversal projects, including dashboards for GEDI Editorial Group, data posters for Generali, and a report for the Museo Egizio of Turin.

JUNE - SEPTEMBER 2019

La Biennale di Venezia, Venezia - Graphic Designer (Intern)

I gained hands-on experience in a cultural institution as a member of the Publishing and Web Office. I contributed to creating static and dynamic content for social media and designed materials for printing.
